What Do We Say?: A Guide To Islamic Manners

Synopsis

This book contains the selections of Du'a (supplications) in Arabic which Muslims use in their everyday life. A straightforward and simple method has been applied to teach the basic du'a to children ages 3-6 years. Examples from everyday life are used to teach children which prayers (du'as) to say, how to memorize these everyday prayers quickly, how to understand their meanings, and the right occasions for their use. Beautifully illustrated, each prayer comes in Arabic, English, and Arabic in roman letters.

Customer Reviews

I think this is a very nice book. My 2 yr loves to pretend to sneeze just so we can say Alhamdulillah, says Bismillah before eating, with that being said, I saw this book and thought it would be perfect to teach him more phases as well as when to use them. It's also a nice reference for my parents (who are not Muslims), to use when talking with my children.

will be reading to kids every week! I love it, even husband who's a convert benefited from it!

Author should take time to translate it accordingly. More kids are trying to learn how to read Arabic and understand it. Authors should take time out to elaborately explain these duties for posterity and a better grasp of our spiritual language, it's a good effort though that should be commended but there's room for an upgrade of the intentions of the book. Regards.

This book is good for little kids who are learning to say stuff like alhamdulillah when sneezing etc. The book has mostly pictures with little text so is more for toddlers and therefore would have been better as a board book

My toddlers enjoy having me read them this book...Even I myself learned a few new phrases. I highly recommend it in anyone's library.

everyone should get this for their kids.. it will help us all to enter jannah inshallah..

I bought this book for my prek kids at preschool but I could use it for prek3 and sometimes 2's as well. It is very easy to understand and pictures make it even more easy to understand and visualize the islamic etiquette. My kids love it and never get tired to listen to this book.

Looooooooooooove this book, as does my 4 year old. However, I had an issue with the last page where there is a dog chasing a boy and it reads " what do we say when we are frightened?" I would rather not teach my child to fear dogs. I simply drew a big circle with a permanent marker and filled it in. It now looks like the boy is running away from a boulder.
