Very easy reading

In this short book, Avid Reader has made an enormous contribution, a great help to readers like me and many others who enjoy all of James Patterson's 24 books in his Alex Cross series. She gives a very good bio of Alex Cross and lists all 24 books in the order of the publication date. The first was published in 1993. She includes a good summary of each book.She also includes information about the upcoming 2017 book, and she gives a link to all the books to .Thus, those who missed a book will see what he or she missed, and those who haven't read any Cross books can start from the first.

I think this is the perfect thing to get for the James Patterson fan who is reading his Alex Cross series particularly if it's for a new reader as some may have gotten into the series due to the movies and not know which order to read them in.Every book is listed here with a synopsis to help you remember what they were each about and links to help you buy the ones you're missing. Even better, since there are so many Alex Cross books, you can use it to mark off which ones you've already read to help keep them straight.Think of it as the perfect gift to include with your purchase of the next Alex Cross Book.

My sister has recently become a huge fan of Alex Cross after seeing the movie, and she claimed she would love to read the books, so I got this reading order list for her with all the books that have him as a protagonist. Needless to say, she found it extremely useful!

Only 1 problem 23.5 should be 24.5. It needs to come after Cross the line. I also wish there was a way to get updates as new Alex Cross books come out.
