Customer Reviews

This came in time for my hike this past weekend. Love that it's waterproof and tear resistant. I will be buying more as I need them.

Weather resistant map at 1:31,680 scale. Contour interval 80 feet. The paper is a bit flimsy.

Good accurate maps. Did well in wet weather. Spread out when drying out and it should be fine....or they might dry stuck to itself.

Covers a tiny area, and shows trails that are easily found on other free/cheap/larger maps. Not worth the money for covering such a small area. It does appear to be accurate though.

Tom Harrison Maps are accurate, easy to read and loaded with valuable information like ranger district phone numbers. I would have rated this map at 5 stars if the paper was waterproof and tear resistant, which this does not appear to be. I would recommend making a copy of your trail section before going out, as it may not hold up very well taking it in/out of your pack or pocket. Nice detail, just not durable.

This is a great, area specific map. Has all the Baldy and related routes, including Icehouse canyon routes.

Great map, what can you say, it is a map.

Like the waterproof material but it lacked detail
