Heinz Mack: Zero Painting. Catalogue RaisonnÃ© 1956-1966

Synopsis

Heinz Mack is best known for his sculptures and reliefs. In the postwar years, however, Mack created a groundbreaking series of paintings that were built on radical reductions of color and a concentration on light and rhythm. The paintings of that period—now known as the ZERO years, gave way later in the 1950s to his Dynamic Structures, works in which a painting of light is set in contrast with traditional approaches to color and structure replaces composition. This catalogue raisonn  offers an unprecedented look at Mack's early work, showing it to be indispensable to an understanding of his whole career.
