Customer Reviews

Insight Guides wherever possible uses local experts who provide insider know-how and share their love and knowledge of the destination.

I bought this book for my traveling partner, as she has never been to Edinburgh and thought it would help in the planning of our upcoming trip. Looking through the pages, I found it to be more useful as a guide for walking about the town, with minor insights to various attractions and the city itself. Though the information regarding the costs to explore most sites was accurate, it neglects to mention that some require advanced booking (The Scottish Parliament guided tour for example) or where donations are encouraged. Overall, it is handy to have for getting ideas on taking walks (tours) about the town and surrounding areas.
