Introduction by Montana photographer Michael S. Sample. Here is a book for everyone who loves Montana. Here are mountains that soar with our spirits, meadows that bloom in the spring, rivers that amble through the prairie, forests that harbor wild things. Here is a country where a neighbor will lend a hand, where cowboys depend on their horses, where coyotes convene at night, where eagles fly. Images and quotations from notable Montanans help paint a picture of the profound feelings Montanans have for their state. Also available is the Montana on My Mind Video.

Great coffee table book!

This book has been around for 20 years or more but is still a wonderful collection of photos by the late Michael Sample and his colleague Larry Mayer. I am an artist and I find inspiration in these photos of The Last Best Place.

This book is filled with spectacular AND realistic photos of Montana. It's obvious this was done by a Montanan who truly understood and loved the Big Sky state. We lost an extremely talented artist. I love this book!

Gorgeous photos of the Treasure State. Sample is recently deceased, so I recommend getting this as a keepsake if you're a lover of all things Montana.

I purchased a used book to save money & I was very surprised that the condition of the used book it looks brand new. I will be looking for other used books to add to my collection. Thank You great book.

The book is excellent, an impressive tribute to a wonderful photographer.

Great book and great condition as stated.
