Customer Reviews

WHEN I SAW THE GOOD REVIEWS ON THIS SERIES, I BOUGHT ALL 5 BOOKS AND THEY ARE ALL GREAT. THE STORIES ARE TOLD BY THE CATS AND THERE IS ALWAYS A NICE MYSTERY WITH THE CATS SOLVING THEM. YOU WILL NOT REGRET READING THESE BOOKS - ALL 5 TO DATE.

"Cats On The Prowl 5" really touched the heart of this cat lover! The felines are out there chatting away, making decision, and taking action - just like my cats do! This case gets interesting right away, as the murder occurs in the back garden of Rudy Ridout, mother to Nelson City detective Carl Ridout. Carl, of course, is taken off the case, which goes to Detective Naya Wesley. Feline detectives Nat and Willow, with the help of one of Rudy's neighbor's cats, solve the case in their own inimitable way. I loved following the conversation between the cats, their ability to get things done, and the social world that cats inhabit. They see things in their own way - which is probably much more realistic than their human's way of seeing things.

This definitely gets five stars from me because it was so enjoyable reading all five books together. I couldn't put them down. I'm ready for the next in the series. Love those cats!

I hope there are many more of these books coming. I have gotten so attached to the police cats I hated to finish the book. I recommend them to any cat lover.

cute stories from the cats' point of view. I like the whole series. The stories are short.

Another great addition to the series. Interested, captivating, fun and almost impossible to put down once started. Love it!

I really like this series of easily readable bedtime books. They are nicely drawn out characters and I like anthropomorphic tales.

Short sweet and entertaining. The police cats and a neighborhood cat lead the detectives to the murderer. Zany characters are delightful
