Customer Reviews

Matthew wrote and edited travel guidebooks for several years and dreams of spending even more time in airplanes, because they're great places to read-and rubberneck. Matthew lives in New York. Mark is the founder and president of a business that modifies vehicles for people with disabilities. He enjoys rubbernecking while flying between his stores that stretch from Maine to Florida. Mark lives in New Hampshire.

We played this game on a 3-hour-drive. Even the adults in the car got into it. Fun for ages 3 and up.

This is a great idea for flying travelers. My kids (10&7) liked it a lot.
