Customer Reviews

It was a gift, the recipient enjoyed it so much!

The sub-title of Michael Edwards book does not lie. It is most definitely the authoritative guide in the great beverage, Champagne. Edwards gets to the point in the beginning of the book, giving precise and accurate details about the origin of Champagne, then moves to another level. Edwards examines all the Champagne houses ever heard of, and more, while continuing to interest the reader. If it is ratings of champagnes or a quick idea you need, it is given in quick abbreviated symbols and words. A real treasure, I have not found a better book when dealing with each champagne house in writing. Michael Kuestermann
