A Topps League Story: Book One: Jinxed!

Synopsis

It's Chad's first spring as a batboy, and the Pine City Porcupines are hot--until they come up against the league-leading Heron Lake Humdingers. Now Chad's got a whole lineup of problems: his favorite player, shortstop Mike Stammer, thinks he's jinxed; Dylan, the other batboy, doesn't even like baseball; there's a goofy new porcupine mascot on the field; plus, Chad has to fill in as batboy for the Herons. It's a good thing there's something in the cards--his baseball cards, that is--that can help Chad sort it all out.

Customer Reviews

My 10yrs old son loves baseball. He was so very excited to find a book to read about baseball and liked this book so much, he couldn't wait to start the second one.

granddaughter loved this

I bought this for my 9 year old son. He sat down and read it from cover to cover! He told me it was a great book and he would like more from the series.

My 8 year old son LOVES these books!

Delivered fast and grandson loved it.

Thanks

I bought this for six and four- year old nephews. About half of the pages intended for artwork were blank, with a message like, "Art is being created for these pages." Since this is not a new book, I wondered if it was a publisher's copy - one sent in advance of publication to a limited audience (reviewers for example). This was not disclosed, and I would not have purchased from this source for young children had I known half the artwork was not included. I could not return the book and start all over because of the time involved. Not satisfied!

This is a great read for kids in 2nd-3rd grade. It is fun and easy to get into. My son loves the characters in the story and it even comes with baseball trading cards of the characters in the book. I enjoyed the book as much as my son for a light hearted quick read.
