Customer Reviews

Eric San Juan is an author and freelance writer in New Jersey. He's delighted that, a decade into marriage, his wife and son still seem well fed.

Cute book, gave as a gift. It was well received.

Its a great book. I plan on giving it to my sons when they get older. A lot of basics that we no longer think about.

Short, concise and full of good things for the married man to know. It's an easy read but using the principles should make a world of difference in any marriage.

Husband din not like it, but i had a grand old time reading it. I set it around the house after we argue so he can find it.

Good book if my husband would read it almost in 25 words or less it says it all about various topics. it is a bit heavy on the hard side of relationships and not so loud about the benefits but has valuable insights.

I bought this as a gift for my groom so he could open before our wedding ceremony. He loved it! Also, the photog got a great shot of him with his new manual. :)

Very fast skipping. Quality of the book is like described. I gave it for my husband as a cbristmas gift. He rally likes it.
