The Prayer Of Jabez For Kids

Synopsis

Bringing the #1 bestseller alive for kids ages 8 - 12 years old, The Prayer of Jabez for Kids follows the same size, format and, most importantly, the same message of The Prayer of Jabez. However, it adds terrific features that will appeal to kids such as line art cartoons, friendly designs and snapshots of key biblical characters who lived big for God. These are all encompassed in kid-friendly applications.

For the sizable segment of Christians who see evangelism as their primary religious duty, the Jabez books are motivational literature par excellence: Wilkinson's The Prayer of Jabez has sold over six million copies since Multnomah released it last year. Carlson's adaptation for middle-graders resembles its parent in package and theology but not in style. To children who daily pray the "Jabez prayer" a Bible verse requesting blessing and protection from sin (1 Chronicles 4:10) the authors promise "incredibly special" results, "adventure, excitement, and lots of fun." But nothing is concrete. Sin is doing "something wrong." Blessings turn out to be neither material nor relational, but evangelistic: increased opportunities to tell classmates about Christ. The authors' attempts at friendly conversation often seem condescending ("You know what?"), wordy ("kind of") or silly ("huh?"). Age targeting is inconsistent: early chapters may strike middle readers as babyish, while Chapter 4 is aimed squarely at teenagers. God is masculine, and most illustrations verbal or visual also feature males. Nevertheless, with its abundant line drawings, pull quotes, and sidebars, the 4" 6" volume makes an attractively packaged addition to a line of books currently enjoying unparalleled blessing. Ages 8-12. (July)Carlson's board book The Prayer of Jabez for Little Kids ($5.99 ages 2-5 ISBN 0-8499-7943-9), illus. by Alexi Natchev (not credited in the book). The picture book The Prayer of Jabez for Young Hearts by Wilkinson and Robert Suggs, illus. by Sergio Martinez, and the devotional The Prayer of Jabez Devotions for Kids: Living Big for God are planned for October publication. BRUCE WILKINSON, author of best-selling, The Prayer of Jabez, and the founder and president of Walk Thru the Bible Ministries, is one of the most respected and sought-after Bible teachers in the world today. Under his leadership, Walk Thru the Bible's ministry has grown to include more than 4,000 Bible teaching seminars every year, numerous video series translated into multiple languages, and a publishing ministry which includes books, Bibles, and distribution of more than 100 million devotional magazines. About Melody Carlson - well, you might see her hiking with her husband and two teenaged sons near her home in Sisters Oregon. She has written over 30 books for children, teens and adults. She has received several awards in the CBA market including the best-selling Benjamin's Box.

The contents of this book are great. The 7 year old I got it for says some parts are good and others a bit boring. I ordered it from another seller and it was listed as "like new" but it has 3 old and sticky labels on it which left sticky residue. I was able to clean it up for the most part.

I intend to draw Bible lessons on prayer from this book. I'm looking forward to using it.

I like the fact that the message is timeless for all ages. Well done and easy to read. It is truly inspired by the divine. I bought them for students. I also bought the one for teens and of course I have given the original as gifts to my friends. Thank you Used this a book study with my twin girls. Full of great information and the product was basically new :-)

Easily to read, really gets the message across to child on their level about living the life God wants us to

Powerful book for children!

I bought this as a Christmas gift for all my SS class. They pray this prayer every day (I hope). This book is a great help for them to understand why they should pray it.

great book for all
