"Namibia ISBN 978-1-919939-03-2 (Hardcover)" written and photographed by father and son, Gerald and Marc Hoberman, is a beautiful testimony to this very interesting country. Not only does it document the various landscapes but also the diverse wildlife from big animals to small beetles and birds. The various peoples, wearing different costumes and having different customs, who inhabit this mostly arid country are shown in their traditional habitat. Natural monuments are as lovingly portrayed as are the buildings dating to colonial times or very modern ones. Anyone who has extensively visited Namibia will enjoy looking at the pictures, reading the text and reliving their trip. For those who are planning to go can have a first glimpse at the wonders that await them.

This is one beautiful little book! If you're a visual person you'll love it. It's full of gorgeous color photos. I bought it for my son for Christmas a couple of years ago after he spent some months on a rig gig in Namibia. It makes a nice gift for anyone who has spent any time or has any interest in Namibia.

An incredible photography book!!!! Hoberman's photos of the landscape, wildlife, architecture, and people do justice to the beauty of Namibia. Having traveled through Namibia, I wanted to find a photography book which captures the beauty of the sights I saw. This is the book.
