Customer Reviews

This was the final of Tracie Peterson's trilogy. I loved the time period and people. I also enjoyed a bit of historical fiction. I recommend these books. I love all her books.

ANOTHER OOOD BOOK BY TRACIE PETERSON

I chose a 5 star rating because I loved, yet another Tracie Peterson book! I only want to go on and read more of her books!!! I love the era that these books are written. The characters are well described. And the Christian attitude is one that I can relate to. Thank you Tracie for the books that

I've been looking for!

I love the way Tracey Peterson writes. Her stories are captivating and never leave me disappointed!
I will always love her books!

Very entertaining and interesting! Tracie has a way of incorporating spiritual themes into very believable fiction. Love the way she weaves her stories together,

Jillian loves her twin sister Judith and will do almost anything for her. This time she has not pretend she is Judith, which lands her in hot water but she is rescued by the towns handsome Doctor . Will he find out her lie ?

I Chose this rating because Tracie Peterson once again made this book outstanding and fun to read. The two twins Judith and Jillian switch jobs so JUdith could get married to the man she fell in love with. Jillian steps into Judiths position at the Harvey House. Which Jillian finds her own love without realizing it. Much more excitement to read about exciting. Don't let this book get away from you without reading.Lee

Good clean book. Very good read. Also very informative. Keeps me awake because I don't want to stop reading at night.
