David Glover has worked as a research scientist and as a teacher of mathematics and science. He has written best-selling maths and science books and CD-ROMs for all ages, from primary schoolchildren to Open University students. He loves challenging puzzles and problems! Tim Hutchinson has been working as an illustrator for the last 12 years. He has published over 40 publications in their various forms. He has worked on education books, history publications, picture books, and pop up books. He has achieved considerable recognition in particular with his own book Dylan's Day and with collaborations such as Mouseton Abbey.

My nephew was delighted to receive it for a gift. He loves solving puzzles and this was perfect

Another puzzle book fun interactive and a new way to read

This is a fun way to enhance your math skills. Aliens and spaceships will make you a hero. You need to defeat the alien robots in order to save the planet. Well written with easy to follow instructions. Cruise your way through the adventure with math questions to figure out. I highly recommend this book. I was given this book from Quarto Knows for an honest review.
