Customer Reviews

I could not believe that there were 2 recipes in the book using bread. Bread is one thing that is completely banned during Passover

Intentions are good but you show pictures of bread and call for noodles which are not kosher for passover otherwise good recipes

Please exercise caution with this book. Title says "Celebrate Passover Right", yet the brisket recipe calls for serving with 'country bread'. Other recipes have similar ingredients that are clearly NOT kosher for Passover. While the recipes appear tasty - they certainly won't have the reader celebrating the holiday "right".

Caution, doesn't look kosher or kosher for Passover. I have not purchased this book. I did preview it and found dairy in the fish dish which is no problem on its own but not while included in a menu with brisket and chicken and matza ball soup! Also, why is there a pie on the cover? I am pretty good at GF cooking but Passover changes things and I am guessing this is not a Kosher for Passover pie.
