Cinderella Wore Tennis Shoes: A Novella

Synopsis

Forget glass slippers—this runaway bride's practical shoes lead her straight to a prince. Thanking her lucky stars that she wore comfortable shoes, Charlotte "Charlie" Eaton dashes out of her wedding, leaving behind her controlling mother's choice of groom, high society's stifling expectations, and, unfortunately, her purse. But the stars align in her favor yet again when a knight in a shiny truck rides to her rescue. Just when she's ready to give up on a fairy-tale kind of love, could she have found her Prince Charming? After surviving a rocky childhood, Dan Martin has created his own happily-ever-after. The owner of a fast-growing shipping company, he's content with his comfortable life. The one thing he doesn't need? Trouble. And that's exactly what the hitchhiker in head-to-almost-toe bridal wear represents: trouble with a capital T. But when Charlie flashes her sparkling green eyes at Dan, he's already a goner. Together, can a bride running away from her nightmare wedding and a man running from his nightmare past make their happiest dreams come true? This novella was previously published as Cinderella Wore Tennis Shoes and Side by Side. It is one of the first stories the author ever wrote.

Customer Reviews

I appreciate the niceness of this story. It had all the elements of a good fairy tale, including the handsome prince, even though he didn't know he was one. The rescued damsel had plenty to overcome including a wicked witch for a mother.

Cinderella, Aladdin, wizard of oz.... what can I say besides I loved it. I wish it had been a longer story.

This was my first book Holly J and I loved it. Couldn't put it down! It was funny, sweet and romantic. Charlie and Dan proved you can have love at first sight. They over came obstacles and it was so much fun to read about their ventures. Would definitely recommend this happy and funny book

It was such a fun story to read.

This was a cute, fun read. from Charlie running away in her wedding dress and tennis shoes and getting a ride with her future prince.

OMG LOVE THIS!!!!!! I LOVED HOW SHE Almost GOT MARRIED But Didn't, AND THEN Hitchhiked With Dan And IT Was Wonderful They Were Different But That Didn't Matter To Them And Fell In Love With Some Help From Friends

Fun short story that I enjoyed reading! I look forward to checking out more Holly Jacobs books!

Loved it.....
