Customer Reviews

I wish I could visit Kissing Bridge Mountain. The people are so friendly and the holidays are celebrated with love and baked goods, what more could you ask? It was great to read a little more about Summer and Brad's wedding plans. I especially like the hint that, while they are setting up housekeeping in their new home, they are not living together. I could feel Doddie's pain. Her loneliness is so heartbreaking. Yet she takes the time to mentor younger women. Another successful book in the Kissing Bridge series. I can't wait for the next installment.

LOVED this book, too!! Like the first book, this one was even better!!! Just read that there will be a third book in the series!!!! So very glad!!! Linda West is such a good writer!! I don't want the series to end.

Another great read from Linda West. I think this book touched my heart more because of "Jason" Army Vet character...Jason and Dodie deserve their HEA...looking forward to read more books like these from Ms. Linda West!

A good book that is worth reading. The author has developed likeable characters who try to find good in every situation. This is the second book in the series. Unfortunately I feel that you need to read the first book to fully understand this one. I gave it 4 stars because this is not a stand alone book. Additionally, I bought the Kindle edition which has a red font that made it harder to read. I recommend this book to anyone who enjoys a good clean quirky romance.

Laughter abounds throughout this book. Enjoyed the book immensely and hope for another book in this series with these characters, this "town" is good back drop for these characters

A very loving book to read. It's so enjoyable. You can't hardly put the book down. It makes you laugh and cry and feel good at the same time. I recommend this book to anyone . It will make you feel good.

I can't get enough of the town of Kissing Bridge people. I love them all. I thoroughly enjoy reading the books from the characters to the whole town. It reminds me of many childhood memories of good times in a small town.. I love how the author mentions the characters from her last books so you can enjoy reading how their lives are continuing. Highly recommended.

Sweet. Lighthearted Romance.
