Great, memorable songs from the first musical I ever saw! Nicely arranged so it's not too difficult to play--but without losing it's original character. The only criticism I have is the "Wedding Processional" sounds different from the original one I remember from the movie soundtrack (which I've seen at least 30 times). Nevertheless, the songs are enjoyable to play and listen to, especially

"The Sound of Music", "Something Good", "Climb Ev'ry Mountain", "I Have Confidence" and "Edelweiss", just to name a few...

These are comprehensive vocal and piano arrangements for singers and pianists.

Great little book of music. My family loves it. The kids sing along. Also I guess I am that guy, you know, the one buys books for musicals to make his kids sing... When did I get old?

Great piano book with good arrangements. More songs on here than I expected.

This is great. It has the music and lyrics plus a little history...

I love the Revised version of this songbook. Much better arrangements, and some additional songs that were excluded from the original publication.

This music collection is very easy to read and easy to play. The selections are the favorites of many. Our choir is taking the Sound of Music tour and happily reviewed the songs to sing on the bus. Thank you!
