Alyssa Satin Capucilli is the author of the first story about Tulip and Rex, Tulip Loves Rex, as well as the bestselling Biscuit books and many other beloved children's books. She lives in a book-filled home in Hastings-on-Hudson, New York. Pat Schories's engaging illustrations of the puppy Biscuit are modeled on her own dog. In addition to having illustrated all the Biscuit books, she is also the artist and author of He's Your Dog and Mouse Around. Ms. Schories lives in Cold Spring, NY.

In this book, Biscuit visits the pumpkin patch and makes some new friends while also getting a pumpkin. If you're familiar with the Biscuit books, you know these are simple stories. They are great for young children, and then when the child is a bit older, great for the child to practice their reading. I like this book very much because we are a family that loves Fall and all things Autumn, but we do not generally celebrate Halloween. I'm always on the lookout for Fall books that don't reference Halloween or Halloween themes. So this was a great addition to our collection.

This is a decent book but the idea is so simple it isn't that fun to read. My daughter enjoys the animals in it though.

I'll give this five stars based on my kid's fascination with it. I personally think the story is kind of bleh, even for a kid's book, but who am I to argue with the intended audience? The illustrations are great.

Very simple text. My granddaughter likes it, but she often gets bored before book is finished even though it is a very simple and quick book to read. Illustrations are cute. Overall a very simple book even for this age group and at times, baby loses interest.

kids love book

This is one of my son's favorites. He loves the illustrations and the variety of pumpkins Biscuit sees during his trip to the pumpkin patch.

I always loved the Biscuit series when I was a child and they still hold up today! I would recommend to any parent or teacher looking for a fun read for their kids.

I was completely with all my purchases. Thank you
