I gave this book to my grandkids, one per household. I am not crazy about the verbiage; I probably would have written this slightly different. But, bottom line, I want my grandkids to hear that Jesus loves them often, if not everyday.

This little book by Noel Piper is excellent as a beginner book for toddlers. The words are simple and few; the colors brilliant! I saw this in our church library and renewed it twice. Finally bought my own copy for our little granddaughter and read it to her when I babysit the last page was ripped so my baby can't see who it is that loves him most of all!well, at least this book because of this defect, is faithful to the second commandment.

This is such a sweet book. It's actually almost verbatim of what we say to our kiddos on a regular basis anyway, so it fits in with our nighttime routine perfectly. It's a simple way to reinforce to your little ones how much you love them, the rest of your family loves them, their friends love them, and most of all Jesus loves them.

Nicely written and illustrated but I guess I was expecting more.

I wanted a clear, easy to read and understand book for a small child who was 3. This book was perfect. Colorful, and very easy to understand. She can read it to herself now and she feels like a "big girl!"I always get good prices at !

My Baby is just 4 months old and she just loves this book, as i turn the pages she loves to see the bright colors and i feel that the message from the book means a looot even to an Infant... I truly loved this book.
