My favorite Author Hope Callaghan continues to write these cozy mysteries that are page turners. This series is now at 14. I love the characters in the series so much I have started to read the series for a second time. You will not be disappointed my friends...

I have bought all of the author's books and read all of the Garden Girl's mysteries. . I have noticed that the series is becoming more of a cookbook than a mystery book. There seemed to me more time me spent on details that appeared to just fill up the page, therefore I found myself flipping some of the pages to continue reading the" meat of the story. I hope this is not what we have to look forward to in the continuing saga of the Garden Girl's mysteries.

Great Book. Easy to read. Gloria and her friends go on a trip to Nantucket to find Brien's girlfriend and talk sence into her and to get her to come back and marry Brien. And of course things go wrong and Brien is brought in for questioning and Gloria and her friends have to solve the murder and help Brien from being the mrurder suspect. Always intersting and fun to read/

Loved this latest book. Like all the spy stuff Ruth has and she knows how to use it!! Really like how all the girls work together to solve the mystery. Wish I had the kind of friends they are.

The Garden Girls have done it again! Another great mystery that kept me guessing until the end. Thanks, Hope Callaghan, for giving me a fun, intriguing, entertaining escape after a hard day of work. I am so spoiled by these books, and knowing I will always have a good read, that I can't wait for more!

I love this series! I enjoy reading what the Garden Girls will get into next. There was parts in the story that didn't seem realistic to me. The bullet proof van and equipment that one would associate with a spy, does not seem believable from an elderly lady. Other than that, I liked the story.

Hope Callaghan always has well define characters. I have read her different series and I like them all but I do have my favorite. Gloria Rutherford Kennedy series is always so full of excitement , mystery and usually involves all her friends. Her stories always have an ending.

Loved this book as I have all the rest of the series. Read it in one sitting. Just couldn't put it down. Keep them coming.
