Selected Alpine Climbs In The Canadian Rockies (Falcon Guides Rock Climbing)

Synopsis

With the aid of route-marked photos, Dougherty describes the normal, classic, extreme and descent routes for each peak. Introductory pages are written with the visitor in mind, giving concise directions on how to get from points of entry to the climbing areas, where to pick up supplies, what to expect of the weather, information on Park regulations, huts, equipment, safety and much more.

Customer Reviews

great guide book with a broad range of trail descriptions. not for the casual hiker but perfect for the avid scrambler/alpinist

perfect guide book

This is the pretty much the current and standard guide to the Canadian Rockies. More complete guides exist, though they are rare and out of print. This guide presents 200 of the best climbs, eliminating overdrawn discussions of the obscure and focusing nicely on routes that have become legendary in the mountaineering world. The book itself is well made and suitable for the top of your pack.
