Introduction Do you remember the first time you walked into Sunday school? Perhaps you remember clinging to your mother's hand, pleading with her not to leave you. You didn't know anyone. You were frightened to be apart from your parents. But then the teacher came over to you, held out her hand, smiled, and welcomed you to the classroom. You were shy at first, sniffing back tears, afraid of being abandoned. By the end of the first class, you didn't want to leave your new friends and teacher! And you still remember that teacher telling you stories about Jesus from the Bible, helping you in interactive play, and consoling you on that first day. Without people like you, that scared child may never have met God. Thank you for helping children come to know and love Jesus.
