Katharine Doob Sakenfeld is William Albright Eisenberger Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis and Director of Doctoral Studies at Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, New Jersey. She is the author of Just Wives? Stories of Power and Survival in the Old Testament and Today and Ruth in the esteemed Interpretation commentary series, both published by WJK.

This is a great combination of a preaching commentary while still being scholarly. I had to buy it for a class, but it is a nice addition to my library!

It was very interesting!

The book is "old" but I admire the work of its author and, when I get to reading it, I am sure I will be happy that I purchased it.
