Customer Reviews

Most people are blissfully unaware of how complicated and stressful an insurance claim can be until they find themselves in the unfortunate position of needing to make a claim. This brilliant, easy-to-read, informative book is an absolute must for anyone who buys insurance. Written by a true expert in insurance claims, it provides a wealth of crucial advice to bear in mind not only when making a claim but also when purchasing a policy in the first place.

If you are unfortunate enough to have serious damage to your property and need to make an insurance claim, you're going to need some expert help. I thoroughly recommend this book as it gives you an insight into all the tricks insurers play to avoid paying your claim.

An excellent book to refer to in the event of a claim. In fact, I would recommend that you read it now so that you have the knowledge of what to expect if ever you have to make a claim. Very well written and easy to read.

As someone just moving into property development, this has been a real eye-opener and, I'd like to think, saved me making some "newbie" mistakes!

Clearly and concisely written with appropriate examples. An excellent read not afraid to take insurers to task from a wealth of experience it is a mine field when it comes to making a successful claim so this book will help out for those have not a clue.. next one please..

A really concise and well written guide to help you when you need it most.

Great insight into insurance claim.
