The Illustrated Winespeak: Ronald Searle's Wicked World Of Winetasting

Synopsis

A hilarious send-up of winetasters' jargon, this collection of cartoons offers a satiric look at pretentious phrases used to describe wines by humorously assigning those characteristics to people.

One of the year's bubbling successes. "Financial Times

Ronald Searle is the creator of the St. Trinian's and Molesworth cartoons, a leading contributor to Life and Le Monde, and the author and illustrator of Searle's Cats.

Ronald Searle does some of the best illustrations. I have his "Big Fat Cat" book also. You will love his whimsical humor. Great gift for wine lovers. You will see something different every time you open the book. Definitely a coffee table book you will want to leave out for guests to see.

A book I can pick up from time to time and find something to make me smile. The pictures are quite funny.

A classic that I've owned since original publication. Bought this one for my grandson.

Pompousness was never funnier! The snobbish lingo used to describe wines gets a taste of its own medicine in this hilarious collection of Searle cartoons. I'd say it's his best book; however, two others come as close seconds: SOMETHING IN THE CELLAR and SLIGHTLY FOXED -BUT STILL DESIRABLE. I'd get all three if I were you!

For those who love wine, there are characters in this that everyone can relate to. A must for all wine lovers out there.

great little book for a gift!

perfect

Favor louis book! Hilarious!
