Alan Robertson is the oldest of the four Robertson boys and the only one who isn't on the Duck Dynasty show (yet). He grew up hunting, fishing, and helping build the foundation of the family business in the 1970s and '80s. Alan left the duck call business when he received the call for ministry in 1988 and served as a senior pastor in West Monroe, Louisiana, until 2012, when he, too, joined the Duck Commander clan to work with the family business. Alan received an Associate's Degree from White's Ferry Road School of Biblical Studies and a Bachelor in Ministry from Sunset International Bible Institute. He lives in West Monroe, Louisiana, with his wife, Lisa, his two grown daughters, and two grandchildren.

The Duck Commander Devotional 2> THE WORD OF God has been a constant in the Robertson home since Dad became a Christian almost forty years ago. Whether we were discussing and debating at the dinner table, teaching in a small-group setting, or sharing with someone who doesn't know the Lord, the Bible has been very near and dear to our family. Like every family, we get busy with life and need regular reminders to read, meditate on God's Word, and apply it to our daily lives. Because our family understands this need, we wanted to write a daily devotional book to help guide others to the life-changing power found in Scripture. Dad's parents, Granny and Pa, helped us buy our home place on the river and lived next door to us when Dad became a Christian. They were retiring and wanted to fish, hunt, grow gardens, and be close to family in their later years. They also had a divine appointment to teach our family a lot of scripture. God knew that our family needed them nearby to help guide our young family in our Christian walk. They were totally committed to studying the Bible and shared so much of what they discovered with our whole family. Forty years ago, our two homes on the Ouachita River were guided by the Scripture, and that foundation has now grown to seven homes, with many more on the horizon as the Robertson family continues to grow. This book is really dedicated to Granny and Pa and the legacy they continue to grow in us concerning our love for the Bible. We are all very excited about sharing some of our favorite passages and why they are special to us. You'll find that some of the chosen passages are repeated by other family members—that's because some of the same passages have significantly impacted different people in our family. If you have watched our television show, you know how much we like to talk and expound on things, and this devotional book is no different. You will find some lengthy passages that don't need a lot said about them because there isn't much to add to the power that God has instilled. You'll also find other passages that spark a memory from our past, a challenge for our present, or a hope for our future. It is our prayer that those sentiments will bless your day and your spiritual walk. We encourage you to read through the passage, message, and prayer more than once during the day and allow God's Word to bless you and guide you in your daily walk with Him. We also challenge you to change whatever needs to be changed in your life to act in line with the truth of God's Word. God says that his Word is active and sharp and was written to impact, shape, and transform lives and lifestyles. If ever there was a time in our world that we needed to be guided by the principles of the Bible, it is now. So many people in the world are struggling for answers to their life issues, and the best guide and most absolute truth available is still the Holy Bible. We invite you to spend a year with our family. As we walk through passages from God's holy words of truth and light, you will be blessed by the journey.

This devotional is a very easy read...and does not go very deep into spiritual thinking. The daily lessons are straight-to-the-point and clear. Each devotion can be completed in less than one minute. I am a duck hunter...so the connection is obvious for me. If you just want a simple daily spiritual idea...this is the book for you.

I was surprised by the genuine reflections given by Duck Commander family members. The prologue was also very interesting with the short bio of everyone in the family. It is easy to see that this family is devoted to their walk with Jesus. I love forward to daily reading the scripture and the devotions by the Duck Commander family.

GREAT devotional!! This is a dated DAILY devotional that consists of a daily scripture reading, a little reading & a closing prayer written by the Duck Dynasty family member for that day's devotion. My kids all love to guess who wrote the day's devotion before I tell them. It is funny how well we "know" people we haven't even met!!

I ordered this as a gift but I had already purchased one for myself a year ago and love it. Wonderful, down to earth plainly stated devotions!

I love this book. I actually have bought this book and gifted it and then replaced it three times. The devotionals are written in such a simplistic style that even a child could understand them. I love the Robertson family, and find their devotion to spreading the Love of God to be one of the most inspirational forces on this earth. Thank you, Al, for a wonderful book. My family likes the fact that it is written in a style which makes it reusable from year to year. It is now on its third repetition in my home. God bless you and your ministry of service to Him. This book was a personal purchase and was not given to me as review.

Motivational and inspirational advice for daily life. Well written, meaningful stories.

not what I expected, expected a more clear message that book is a great idea to read thank to the Robertson family to make that book
