Natalie Wise is a Dartmouth-educated poet, author, and style expert known as "Professional Sunshine." She is all about pink lipstick, big sunglasses, her trademark #caffeinecrazy when she drinks coffee, and creating happy things for happy people. She lives in Brattleboro, Vermont.

Thrilled with this book! Surpassed my expectations! Not only are there endless ideas for gifts in jars literally, but actual usable information that goes beyond just filling jars! Amazed at all the ideas this author actually teaches you! Very resourceful in quality giving that is much more endearing than store bought manufacturing. Exciting, fun and thoughtful gift giving!

Good book. I got it instead of one I was looking for but couldn't find that had pull out pages you could tie to your gift bottles.

This book is so fun and creative! We especially love the ideas for succulent gardens in jars and homemade syrups stored in jars for our hot drinks. We will treasure this book for years to come.

Excellent gift for anyone into crafting! I also know the author, and it feels great supporting talented young professionals.

Not what I expected. Thought I would get ideas to make gifts in a jar,

So many wonderful ideas here beyond the usual chocolate chip cookie mix! Great photos and clear instructions. I can't wait to gift my nieces and nephews some Giant Lawn Bubbles and Playdough this Christmas!

Its a wonderful filled with so many gift ideas. Love looking through it tosee what my next project will be. Happy to call Natalie a dear friend of mine.

A beautiful and fun book full of great ideas! For those who want to give creative and personal gifts but don't know where to begin, Natalie's book is just the thing. Its pictures are gorgeous and there's a great range of gifts -- something to make that will satisfy everyone in your life!
