The best in the game!

Once again our family is turning to Ann Levine for unparalleled insight to help us through the law school admission process. At a time when student and family may find themselves overwhelmed and somewhat lost, Ms. Levine offers organized insight, answering questions in an almost prophetic manner. We have already sent two of our children to law school with her help, and were delighted that this new addition has been released. If you or your child are even considering the oftentimes daunting process of law school application, look no further!

Anne's book is a tool that all prospective students should have. Her experience and insight removes the mystery behind law school admissions and how to put your best foot forward in that process. The book talks about everything from personal statements, when to apply, letters of rec, addendum, and so much more. Any prospective student should utilize this book and its wealth of information to give themselves the best opportunity at getting into their top school. P.S. Anne has services that go well beyond this book that she will personally work with you on during the admissions process. The book is her guide to admissions but having her to go over every bit of your application helps to put the best version of yourself forward to schools.

With no surprise, Ann Levine has done it again! Having read her previous editions, as well other books by other authors regarding the same topic, I truly believe this is the best book you can purchase if you are a potential future/transfer JD student. The Law School Admission Game simplifies the long, brutal process of applying to law school in ways that anyone can understand, through examples and previous experiences with a variety of former applicants. I have purchased and read a good chunk of books regarding law school on the market - and this is the one. I highly recommend!!!

As a student applying to only top 5 schools. I spent a ton of time on my applications. I knew most of the stuff in the book, but it was so useful! 1) great checklist to go over and make sure everything is in order. 2) you forget so many of the little things in applications, this book helps you remember. And 3) it covers everything! Read it! Read it early! And read it often!

Ann knows her stuff and is easy to get in touch with if you ever have a question. This book packs a lot of information and is an easy read, and is extremely easy to reference when need be. if you're in the process of applying, do yourself a favor and spend a few bucks on this book to save money when you apply.

Ms. Levine's book is a game changer. The invaluable insight provided by her is well worth the cost of the book. Truly a great investment.

Very grateful for Ann's expertise and accessibility! This is a must-read for those applying to law school.
