Mister Terrific #1 "1SR PRINT- The World's Third-smartest Man - and One of Its Most Eligible Bachelors"

DC, when re-booting the entire company with the "New 52" have sought to expand the superhero comic book fan base. Mister Terrific seems like an ideal book to do just that. The lead character is an African-American software mogul slash superhero. The story is about as credible as any other comic superhero story, which is to say, not that believable. But who cares? That's not why we're reading comics in the first place. Mr. Terrific feels a bit derivative, something of a Iron Man crossed with a black guy, crossed with Bruce Wayne. His costume and method of flying around is even a little goofy. But clearly, he's a ladies man and pretty darn good looking. The artwork is a treat, vibrant colors, hot women, powerful men. No complaints here. An intriguing entrant in the New 52. I want to read more.
