I'm a reading specialist in a public school that works with multiple grade levels. When I begin the year with my kindergarten students, I read a LOT of alphabet books to help them gain familiarity with the letters and the sounds they make - so I'm always looking for fun alphabet books. I rediscovered this book recently and I love the descriptive adjectives that Sandra uses for the animals and letters - it makes it much more interesting than the "A is for apple and B is for ball" that we're all used to reading. The words and the pictures always hold my students' interest from start to finish. This would be a great addition to anyone's ABC book collection.

Grandkids love this book! They like to "read" it to me. Sandra Boynton hits a home run on this ABC book!!

A book to read with your child while you laugh at Boynton's choice of adjectives and animals. Of course, the aardvark must appear first. A young child gets exposed to new words (a zany zebra ends the book). As the book becomes more familiar and the child becomes older, the words gain meanings, reflected in the illustrations. All in good fun.

Can't go wrong with Boynton - I keep some of her books on hand for baby gifts. This is a redo of an old favorite.

FabuLous, funny and engaging! I personally love Sandra Biynto

You just can't go wrong with Sandra Boynton.
